DISCLAIMERS

¹Management Expense Ratio (MER) is for the period of January 1, 2022 to December 31, 2022.

²S&P/TSX Composite Total Return Index (S&P/TSX Composite TRI) represents the gross returns of the index.

The S&P/TSX Total Return Index measures the performance of the broad Canadian equity market, including dividend re-investment, in Canadian dollars. This index has been provided for information only and comparisons to the index has limitations. The benchmark is an appropriate standard against which the performance of the ETF can be measured over longer time periods as it represents the primary investment universe from which Bristol Gate selects securities. However, Bristol Gate's portfolio construction process differs materially from that of the benchmark and the securities selected for inclusion in the ETF are not influenced by the composition of the benchmark. For example, the ETF is a concentrated portfolio of approximately equally weighted dividend-paying equity securities, rebalanced quarterly whereas the benchmark is a broad stock index (including both dividend and non-dividend paying equities) that is market capitalization weighted. As such, ETF performance deviations relative to the benchmark may be significant, particularly over shorter time periods. The ETF has concentrated investments in a limited number of companies; as a result, a change in one security's value may have a more significant effect on the ETF's value.

Commissions, trailing commissions, management fees and expenses all may be associated with exchange traded mutual funds (ETFs). Please read the prospectus before investing. ETFs are not guaranteed, their values change frequently and past performance may not be repeated. There are risks involved with investing in ETFs. Please read the prospectus for a complete description of risks relevant to the ETF. Investors may incur customary brokerage commissions in buying or selling ETF units. The indicated rates of return are the historical compounded total returns for the relevant period including changes in unit value and reinvestment of all dividends and does not take into account sales, redemption, distribution or optional charges or income taxes payable by any unitholder that would have reduced returns. The rates of return for periods of less than one year are simple rates of return. Bristol Gate ETFs are offered by Bristol Gate Capital Partners Inc. and distributed through authorized dealers. This Report is for information purposes and should not be construed under any circumstances as a public offering of securities in any jurisdiction in which an offer or solicitation is not authorized. Prospective investors in Bristol Gate's ETFs should rely solely on the ETFs' prospectus, which outline the risk factors associated with a decision to invest. No representations or warranties of any kind are intended or should be inferred with respect to the economic return or the tax implications of any investment in the Bristol Gate ETFs.
